MoR Code of Conduct

“The fine print you should remember.”

NO reenactor will be permitted to exhibit the ideals of the Nazi regime. No Period Politics. Despite historical correctness, at no time will any reenactor use the Nazi party salute, only military salutes are permitted. Flags, large pennants or vehicle recognition flags may not contain the swastika. Simulation flags using the Balkan cross are permitted.

When speaking to the public, reenactors will refrain from engaging in conversations about Nazi politics.

When in character at MoR all reenactors will conduct themselves in period military fashion; or if partisan appropriately as an Italian citizen of the period.

Current members and veterans of any military and any war will be treated with the utmost respect and courtesy.

All military courtesies will be afforded officers and NCOs, regardless of branch of service, both Axis and Allied. The senior NCO or Officer in a group is responsible for instruction and enforcement.

Reenactors will conduct themselves with chivalry and, as such, afford appropriate courtesies to women, elders and properly guarded enemy prisoners of war.

As a prisoner of war, reenactors will continue to conduct themselves as such and afford enemy officers appropriate respect.

When in a public display, matters of a non-period nature will be kept to a minimum. All non-period items will be kept out of public view. Food will be consumed from and with period gear whenever possible.

Reenactors will not fire on unarmed combatants or civilians during tacticals, show battles or displays.

Haircuts will be of 1940's military style. Trimmed mustaches of period length are permitted for officers but discouraged. No other facial hair permitted except for partisans.

Under no circumstances will the personal addresses, telephone numbers or e-mail addresses of any reenactor be given to anyone outside of the association, except with the express permission of the reenactor.

The consumption of alcoholic beverages will be permitted in moderation and not permitted at any time during public displays, tactical or events that include the handling of firearms.

No sidearms (handguns) at formal dinner functions.

Guide To Personal Photography

1. Always ask all persons in the photo if they wish to be photographed.
2. Make sure your camera or phone is turned on, set the way you want it, and ready to shoot before you approach the reenactor. Fiddle with settings during your time, not theirs.
3. You think someone looks silly, and your wish is to humiliate them? Shame on you and don't take that photo. If this is your goal, this is not your event. Ever.

Welcome and thank you for joining us in what we hope will be a fun, safe and memorable WWII reenacting event.

You face two days of challenging battle and camaraderie in the field. Since we are at a higher altitude and we will have strenuous fighting conditions please be sure to stay well hydrated.

The event takes place over difficult terrain so trips, falls and sprains can happen. There are also poisonous snakes which are indigenous to the area, please use caution.

For all questions and issues please come to the registration tent. The event organizers can be paged from registration as well.

Best regards, and safe fighting!

The MoR Management Team,
David Kumhyr & Aaron Seamster
